Jack

Jack's mother

The Giant

Jack and the Beanstalk

The themes we are focusing on in this book are courage, facing fears and problem solving

We will explore courage and facing fears by talking about how Jack feels when he climbs the tall beanstalk and meets the giant. We will also explore problem solving by looking at how Jack tries to solve the problem of being poor.

Through the story, we will think about how Jack helps his mother and discuss what kind of character he is, encouraging us to talk about kindness, bravery, and making choices.
