

Billy's Bucket by Kes Gray and Garry Parsons

This term we are learning about under the sea.

While we read Billy's Bucket, we will explore the themes of imagination and curiosity.

Billy uses his imagination to create an undersea world inside his bucket. As we read, we will be curious and ask questions about Billy's bucket. We will share our ideas and imagine an undersea world of our own. This will help us use our imagination and be curious about the world around us.

Plot

Billy gets a bucket for his birthday. He imagines the bucket is full of sea creatures, like sharks, mermaids, and even scuba divers. He has fun using his imagination to create his own undersea world.

Key Vocabulary

seaside

borrow

special

chuckled

filled

imagination

noticed

