About this Unit

This unit is inspired by lots of different themes. Here are some that you may explore...

Machines

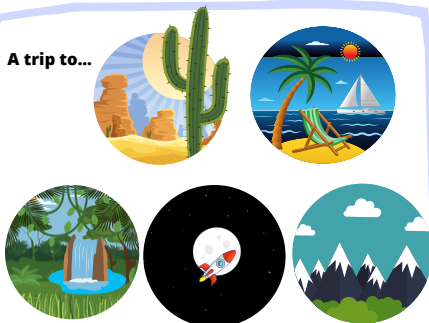

There are an estimated 10 million factories in the world.

Industrial factories use big machinery to build things such as aeroplanes, cars, computers and electrical goods (like toasters, microwaves and washing machines).

Machines are made up of different parts that make them work and control their movements...

...such as levers, cogs, pistons, pumps and chains.
