

Parent Voice Meeting 30th September

We welcomed 5 parents who mostly represented KS2.

Mrs Cooper shared the full details of the school's School Development Plan (SDP). Each target and priority was discussed, some in more detail than others.

Improving the outcomes of our children entitled to Pupil Premium

SEND: Improving- provision in the classroom, identification and the review and referral processes

Developing Oracy

Increasing challenge in the curriculum

Developing our Mission Statement

Improving the way we report to families

Further improving provision and children's outcomes in EYFS

Creating a whole school Personal Development Curriculum

Working with children and families to support children's challenges with behaviour

Continuing our Anti- Bullying work

Developing our Reading Curriculum

Continuing our work on MITA (maximising the impact of our teaching assistants)

Continuing to strengthen the teaching of phonics

Continuing our work with WalkThrus

Continuing to improve how we monitor teaching and learning

Finalising our Anti-Racism Charter

Achieving 'Gold' Rights Respecting School status

Reducing suspensions and eliminating permanent exclusion

Improving children's behaviour during transitions in the day

Improving the website and the way we communicate with families

Strengthening our moderation and assessment processes

Improving the teaching of handwriting and children's outcomes in this area

Linden Road, Bournville, Birmingham, B30 1JY

Head Teacher: Amy Cooper enquiry@bournvillevillageprimary.org.uk

Tel: 0121 675 9098

There weren't any particular actions going forward, nor ideas for future agendas.

There was positive feedback about the new format of the end of term reports and also the new plan for children's attainment and progress data to be 'visible' to parents during set windows across the year.

Mrs Cooper encouraged the parents who attended, to talk to other families about coming along to the next meeting.

